

Q2. Following a major radiation spill the best sequence to follow is:

a. remove patients from the area, notify everyone in the vicinity, seal the area, immediately begin to decontaminate the area

b. immediately begin to decontaminate the area, notify everyone in the vicinity, seal the area, remove patients from the area

c. remove patients from the area, notify everyone in the vicinity, seal the area, do not decontaminate the area unless absolutely necessary

d. immediately begin to decontaminate the area, seal the area, notify everyone in the vicinity, remove patients from the area