

Q7. The description of the type of radioactive shipment received in Nuclear Cardiology that must be assessed for possible contamination is:

- a. every radioactive package with activity greater than 37 MBq
- b. every package containing radioactive liquids
- c. every package containing radioactive solids
- d. every radioactive package