

Q2. Failure to apply high-count correcting information can result in:

a. artifactual myocardial perfusion defects

b. concentric ring artifacts

c. mistuned gamma cameras

d. noticeably non-uniform flood fields